

CENSUS FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)

Q: When is the deadline to respond to the 2020 U.S. Census?

A: In light of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, the Census Bureau is extending the self-response period to October 31, 2020.

Q: How can I safely participate in the Census during the pandemic?

A: I strongly urge you to complete the census online or by phone. To respond online, please visit this website. To respond by phone, please click here. If your household has not responded yet, you will receive a paper form to be submitted by mail. For help with questions about the 2020 census, please visit the Census Bureau's website here.

Q: How will I receive an invitation if I have a PO box?

A: The Census Bureau's Update Leave Operation sends census workers to drop off invitations at households that do not have mailboxes, including households that have PO boxes. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, this operation was originally delayed, but began in Hawaii on June 1, 2020. For more information on the Census Bureau's operational plans, please visit the agency's website here.